To you, Mrs. Isabelle M. Cummings, we dedicate the 1960 Eagle.

Beginning her work here in the fall of 1947, Mrs. Cummings will have completed her thirteenth year here with the graduation of the 1960 Seniors. She has taught American History, World History, Civics, Economics, English, and General Science.

In 1957 and 1948, Mrs. Cummings sponsored the Pep Squad and from 1948-1956, she sponsored one whole class from the eighth grade through the twelfth. From 1956 through 1960, she has sponsored Freshman and Sophomore home rooms.

In 1946, Mrs. Cummings received her Master's Degree in Psychology from Southern Methodist University and, since coming here, has given all the high school Psychological Tests. She was also one of the first teachers to be nominated by the Dallas Times Herald for Teacher of the Year.

Mrs. Cummings, we wish to salute you for your outstanding service and contributions to our school.

Foreword

We of the EAGLE Staff hope that in this book we have represented and illustrated some of the wonderful events which took place in the "Soaring 60's." This year will end a chapter in the lives of some; while in others it will be a beginning of things to come.

We hope this book will serve as a scrapbook of everlasting memories. The book is made up of our triumphs as well as our losses and sorrows. Each student has had a part in making this book.

These pages represent YOUR school and the events of the 1959-60 school year.

ACTIVITIES

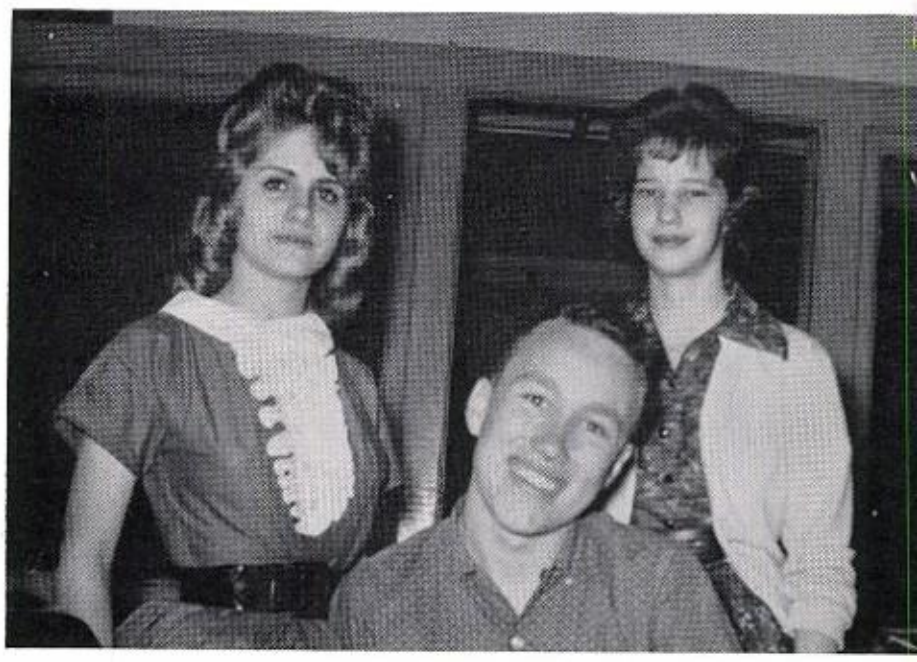
Student body president Jessie James outlines student council's ambitious plans at first meeting . . .

. . . and assisted by council officers Linda Hancock, Rena Southerland, and Ted Tittsworth, she names standing committees.

Planning and scheduling assemblies for the year are Mary Frances Kirk, Lester Stapp, Diane McCormick, Louis Moncrief and Anita Allen.

Highlight of council's activities was the girls' football game to raise funds for council projects. Plans are made by Rosa Madrigal, Quentin Reynolds, and Alvie Minor.

Another gratifying project was the collection of food for the needy checked by Joyce Brown, Nelda Bush, Woody Taylor and Nancy Perigo.



Pleasantly contemplating the leader training program which the council will help finance are Bernice Vrba, Lanny Brewer, and Janice Liebel.

Homecoming

Miss Grant and Ex's President Booster Warren plan the 1960 Homecoming Program.

A group of well-chosen 1960 Seniors welcome the Ex's with smiles and name-tags.

The 1960 Football Sweetheart, Miss Barbara Phillips, thanks Captains George Slagle and Bobby Cole with a gracious smile.

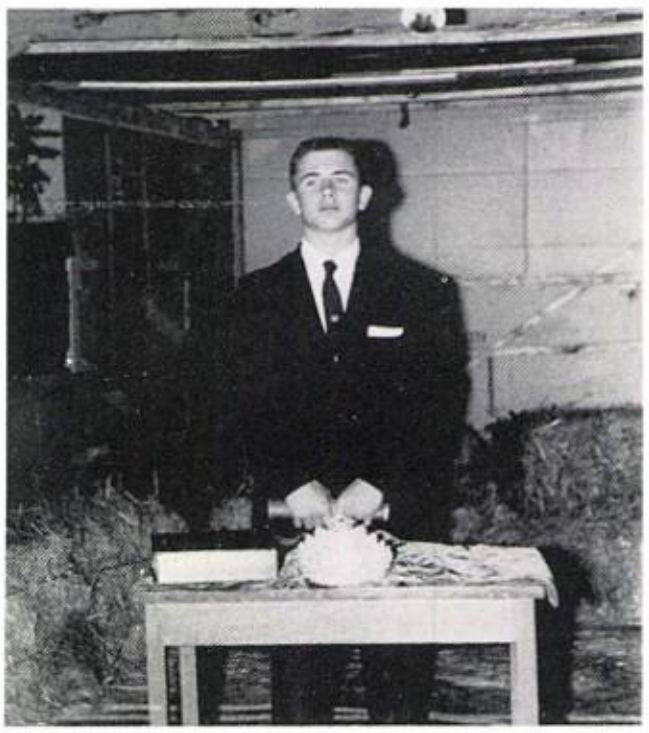
Our Beatnik Queen, Sharon Harwell, reads a poem of welcome to the Ex's.

Participators in the program were Ted Tittsworth and Mike Warren who did "Hey, Man."

Food in the lunchroom prepared by Mrs. Matthews is served to all.

Christmas Pageant

The high school choral club, under the direction of Mr. Schober, provided music for the pageant, entitled "Love Transcending."

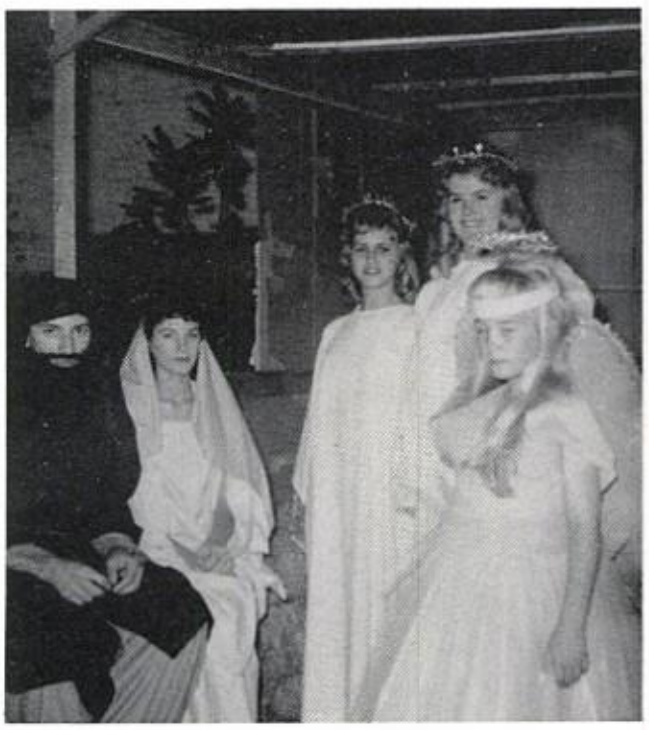


Ted Tittsworth was the reader and narrator of the story of the birth of Christ.

The pageant began as the soldier read his decree to the humble people.

The angel appeared before the wise men and told them of the great news.

The holy angel watches over Mary and her small son, Jesus.



There is great rejoicing at the birth of the small child.

Assemblies

Martha Sanderford and Jerry Sadler display their project on pre-historic life.

Patsy Stevens, Joe Pacino, and Big Chief Johnny Ballard illustrate the fact that the Indians were some of the first inhabitants of the Americas.

Run! Girls! Run! We want a touchdown!

If Hawaii is always like our friends explained, maybe someday all of us will make it to the exotic, tropical paradise!

What do you mean all the boys want to go to Navarro Junior College?

Assemblies

One-and-a-two-and-a . . .

These are some of the outstanding members of the Senior Class. They were chosen for their conduct, curricular, and extracurricular work.

Marshall, Jimmy V., Sharon, Martha, and Jimmy D. discussed ways we can improve our school. Not just for Brotherhood Week, but for all times.

Our two honor students are Diane McCormick and Sharon Harwell . . .

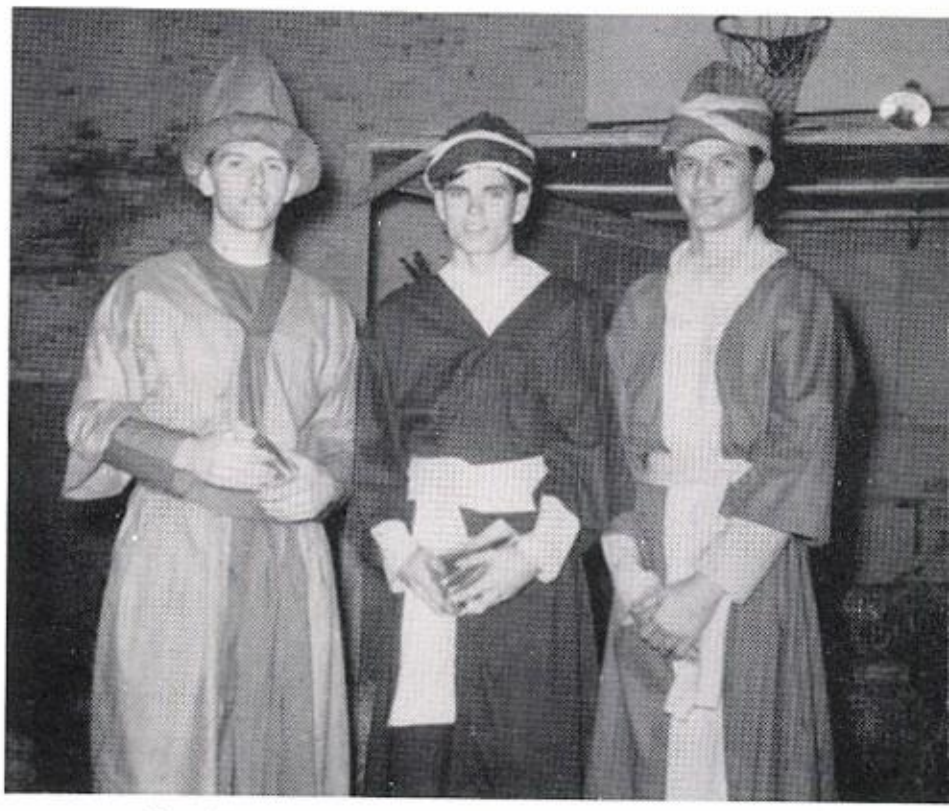
Our musical student, Kathy Collier, received this year's Aerian Award.

Do You Remember . . .

. . . the snowball fights that resulted in several bruises and cracked windows?

. . . the "beatniks" who dropped in for the Homecoming program?

. . . the "smack" Wyndell hung on Sue Davis, band sweetheart?

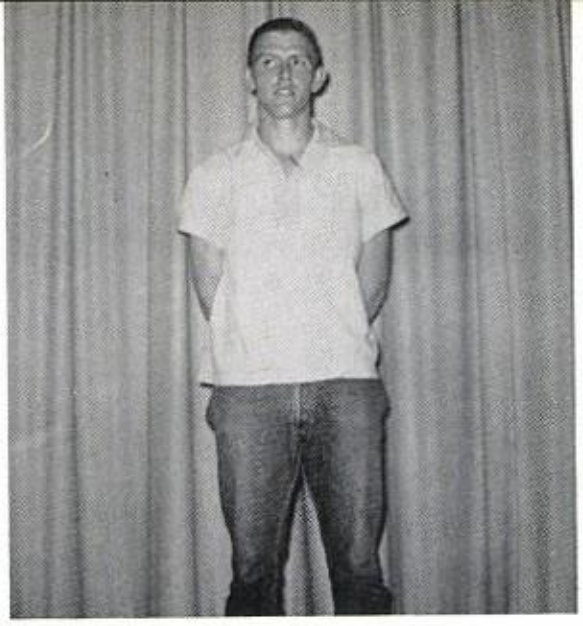


. . . the "Wise Men" (?) in the Christmas Pageant?

. . . the Senoritas from Navarro Junior College?

. . . what the insulting look given by Lewis to Lester at the Prom was for?

Honor Assembly



Lewis Moncrief, as president of the Student Council, was honored for his scholastic and athletic ability.

Jerry Phillips receives his awards from Coach Young and Coach Tyler.

Ronald and Joyce London and Jack Beall display the trophy they won in the F. F. A. Rodeo in Alvarado.

Mark Kirk hands the whistle over to new drill team captain, Dale Mitchell. The new officers look on.

New cheerleaders this year are: Lanny Brewer, Pat Spurgeon, Bernice Vrba, and Dianne Nelson.

The new majorettes for 1960 pose before the camera.

New flagbearers are: Carolyn Grant, Vera Crow, and Charlotte Harwell.

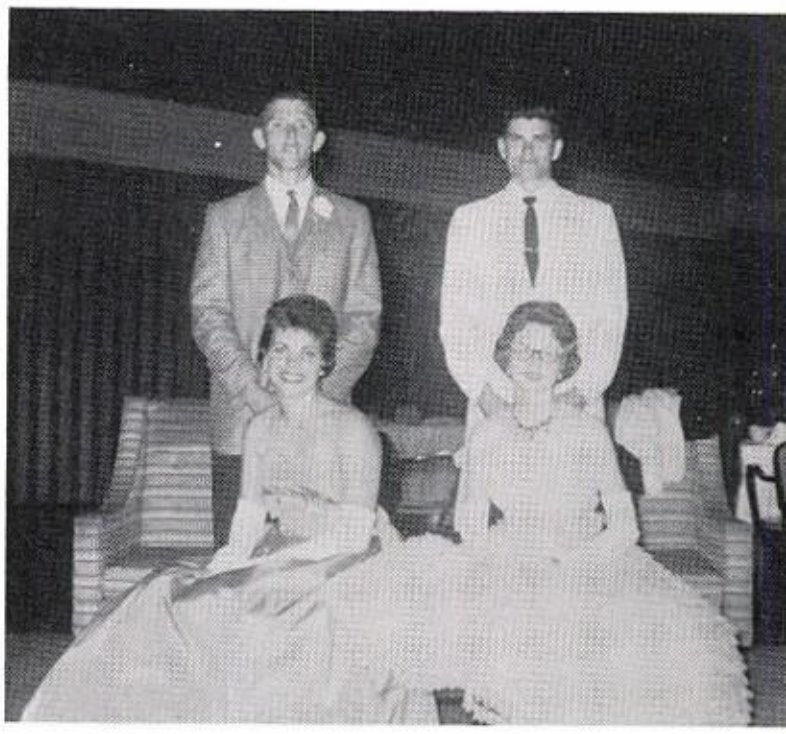
Junior-Senior Prom

Everyone was greeted at the door by Jerry Nash, Nancy Morris, Janice Lieble, and Billy Lowrance, who ushered the guests to the "fuel up."



Before eating, Louis Moncrief, next year's Student Council President, Jessie James, this year's, Lester Stapp, the 1960 Senior Class President, and his date, Carol Perigo, pose for us.

Bruce Frazier, Sharon Harwell, Jimmy Venable, and Sarah Alford, eat together. There were three choices of meat and three choices of salads. This was the first banquet in WH's history when we had a choice. All the Seniors agreed that it was one of the best banquets ever!

Mr. and Mrs. Schober and Bernice pose.

Mr. Schober seems to be sitting on a pillar.

Verna Spurgeon welcomes everyone.

The earth visitors are welcomed to the wonderful adventuresome planet of Venus by Spacewoman Shirley West and Spaceman Buddy Adams.

Frieda Jistle introduces Jessie James and Lester Stapp, as voted by the Junior Class, as Mr. and Miss Wilmer-Hutchins. The Junior Class this year hopes to make this honor traditional.

The Seniors of 1960 wish to congratulate the Seniors of 1961 for one of the brightest memories of their Senior Year . . .

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET
AND PROM

As the combo begins playing, everyone is enraptured because no one has ever heard such a wonderful sounding one before.

The dancing begins. Dancing are: Bruce Frazier, Sarah Alford; Judy Conner and Miss Grant's friend; and in the background is Diane McCormick and Vaughn Heard.

the perfect Idiot

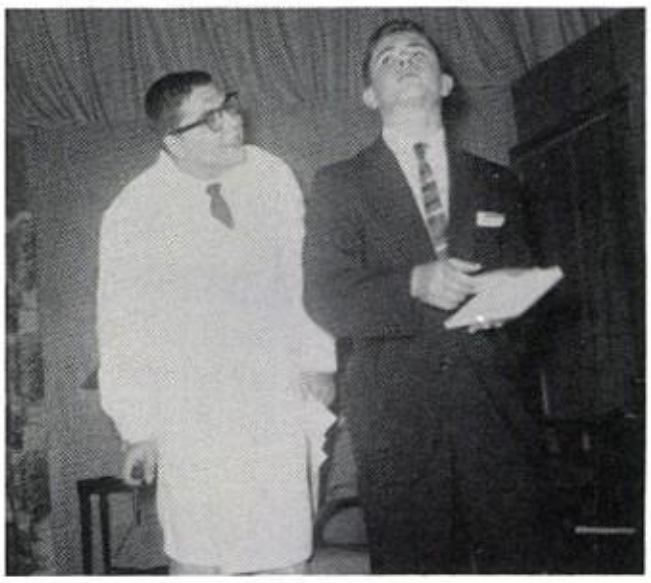
Troubles for a genius - "Culmination of a long series of incidents."

Sympathy and advice - "Boy, you shore have had it."

And more trouble . . . "I'll sue you . . . you Frankenstein."

The solution: "Simple power of suggestion, Mr. Latherby."

Whoops! A foul-up - "He thinks he's a rabbit."



And more troubles . . . "Personal!! Are you insane?"

More sympathy. "Well, I'm with you at last."

"Wow, this'll make a good story." And it did.

Senior Play

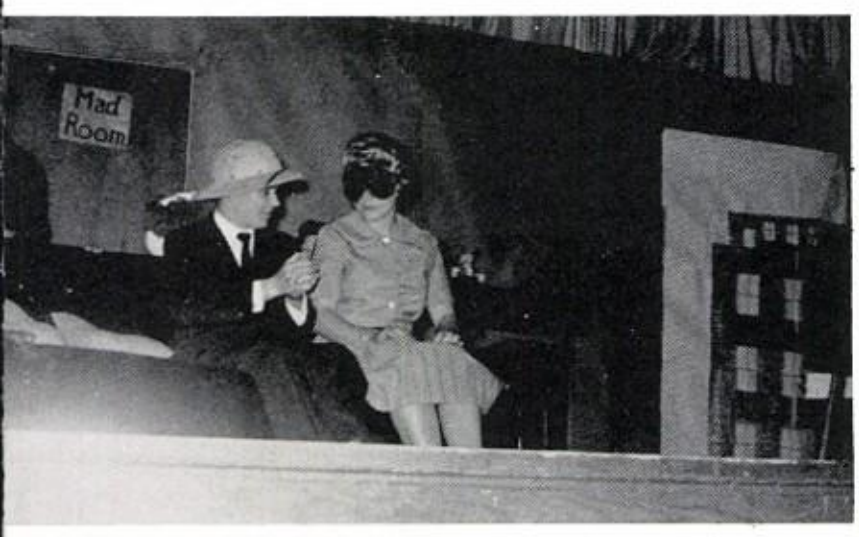
Velvet and Melvin paint a self-portrait on each other.

Mary is getting a little exasperated with Dr. Bell's school.



Judson and Greta are flying a plane while Dr. Bell supplies the sound effects.

Greta and Beaver are trying to be the emotions that win out over the others.

Looks as if Melvin and Judson are having a little trouble with the boss.

Elmira and Officer Schmidt just don't understand Dr. Bell's school.

This is the Bell's school band marching in the mud pan.

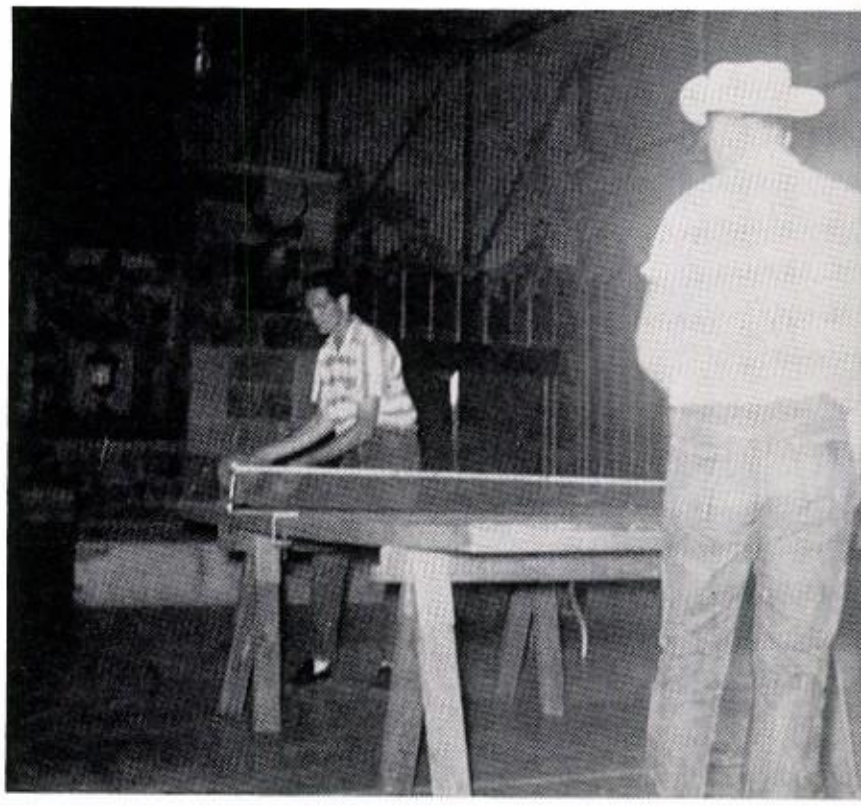
Do you think they will all get the death sentence?

Senior Activities

We at last arrive at our destination. Lester seems to have brought enough clothes to stay a week instead of just a day.

Jimmie Cole, Diane McCormick, and David Meredith are discussing a very important matter. She is telling them how to ride a horse. Ha! Ha!

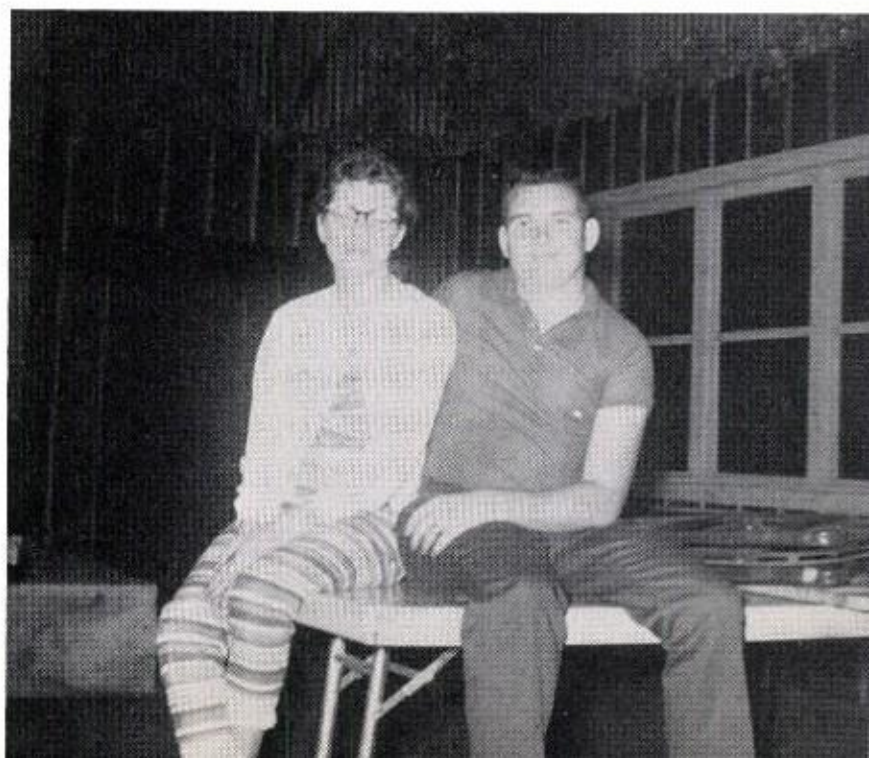
Mrs. Hampton, Bernice, and Mary are enjoying the sun and warm weather.



Jimmy Venable and Bill Sheldon were expert ping pong players by the time the day was over.

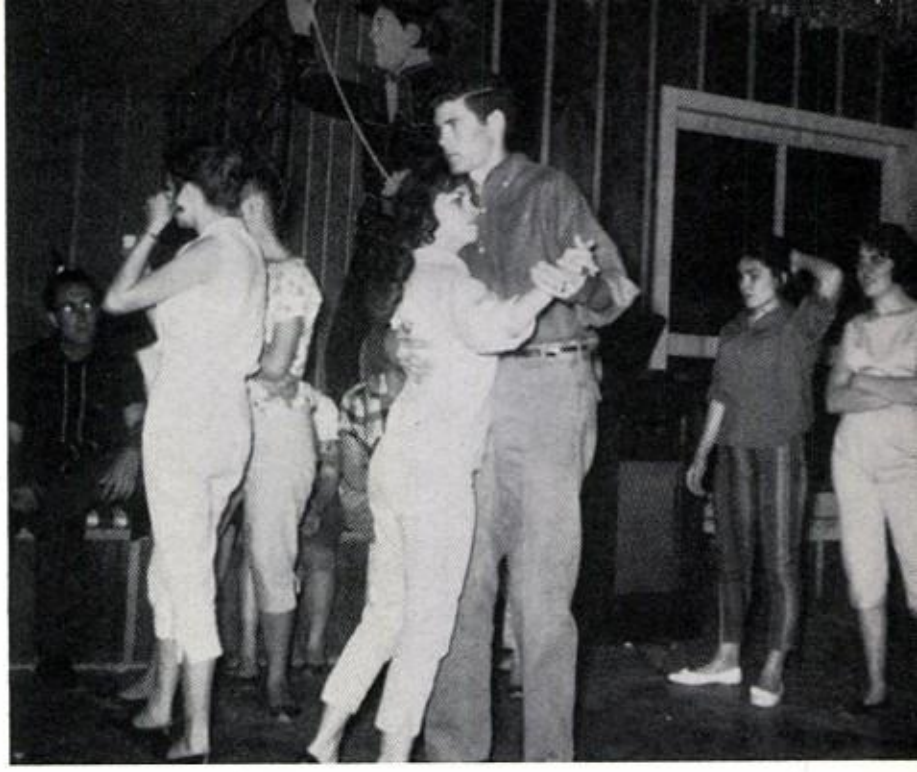
Mary Kirk and Joe Davis find dancing a pleasant pastime.

Kenneth and Claudine relax after swimming and riding.

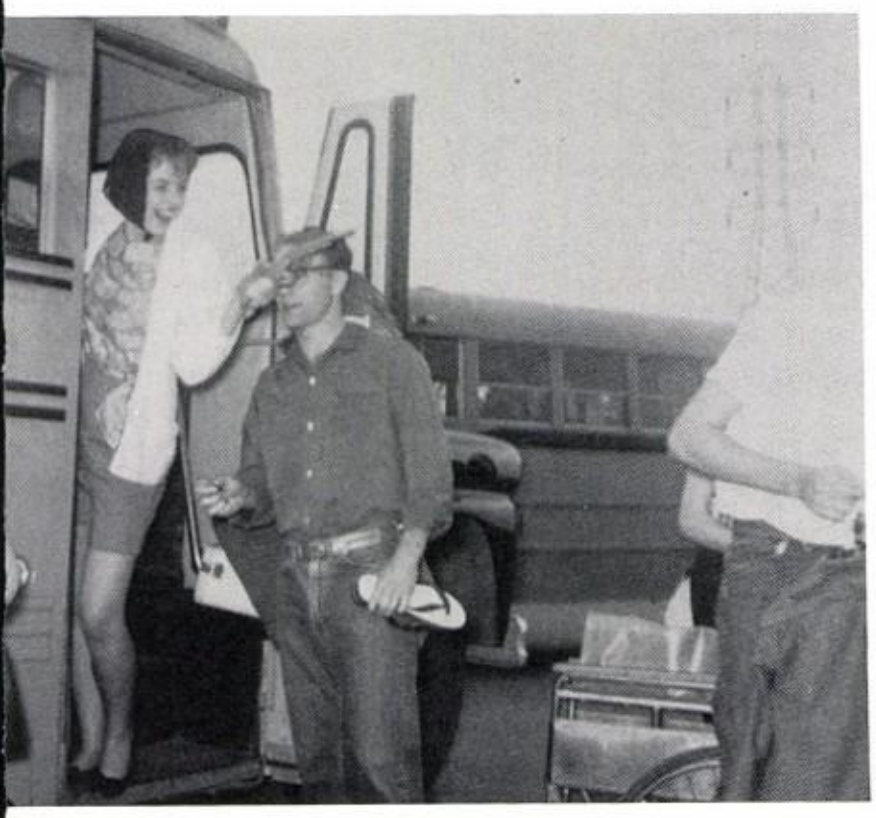


Senior Activities

The boys, as well as the girls, seem to be enjoying a QUIET game of cards.



The night's activities began with dancing and singing.



Sharon Harwell is ready to fire her water gun at someone. I can't imagine who.

What kind of a game are you playing, Peggy?

Lester, Valjo, and Bill are very interested in the scenery. By the way, the scenery is Mary Kirk.

A tired group of seniors leave for home happy after a wonderful day.
